BISHOP DEDICATES
NEW HOLY TRINITY*LARGE CROWD
VIEWS RITES*Colorful Outdoor and Indoor Services Held at Church.

With the beautiful altar symbols in the Catholic church in the presence of about 1,000 persons, and presided by the bishop of the diocese, the new Holy Trinity church was dedicated Monday night in its second year of existence.

The service attracted a large assembly to witness the outdoor service, the presentation of the altar and the lighting of the altar. The church is the new permanent home for the Holy Trinity church, which has been in the city since 1912.

The day was ideal for such an occasion, with the light breeze and the sun shining brightly. The church is a beautiful building, and the service was a most impressive one.

After Blessing Walls of New Holy Trinity Church

The Most Rev. J. H. Holleran, bishop of the Fourth diocese, is shown here following the blessing of the walls of the new Holy Trinity church in the dedication service. A large crowd gathered to witness the ceremony. First the altar walls were blessed, then the lower walls, and then the doors were blessed by the Pontifical men.

Hundreds of Priests Join in Dedication Services

A portion of the large crowd attending services in the Pontifical mass at Holy Trinity church, held following the dedication, is revealed in this view. Hundreds of visiting priests followed the Most Rev. J. H. Holleran, bishop of the Fourth diocese, who officiated in blessing the altar and lower walls prior to the opening of the doors.
